

Prof. Naushad Ali Azad

Naushad Ali Azad is professor of economics at Jamia Millia Islamia (Central University), New Delhi. He did his graduation from KM College (Delhi University), MSc(Stats) & MA(Eco) from AMU Aligarh and Ph.D. from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi besides a PG Diploma in Planning from erstwhile SGPiS, Warsaw (Poland). He has more than 40 years' experience of teaching and research with a focus on Trade and Investment aspects of International Economic Relations. He is member of the general body of National Skill Development Agency (NSDA) under notification of Department of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Finance, and Government of India. (File 4/3/2013-Invt. dated 7th January 2014). In an outreach program, Prof Azad delivered lectures and conducted workshops for Ministry of Construction, Government of Vietnam on Sustainable Urban Development, Global Economic Crisis and Issues in Competitiveness.